

Suspension Technique Lay-in installation

Cross section

Every Louverlux louver ceiling requires a suitable suspension construction, which essentially consists of quick-release hangers, wall brackets and T-rails.

The advantage of this visible form of mounting is the easy accessibility to the lighting fixtures, air conditioning units etc. located behind the louvre ceiling, as the louvre panels can be easily removed from the T-rail system.